

Obama's Strategy Unveiled to Destroy America from Within

By Sally Bode

We switched sides in the war on terror. Instead of empowering the peaceful Muslims of the Middle East, we have been arming the terrorists. Now the strategy is to bring the jihad here vs. fight them there and they won't come here. If you switch sides as Obama has done, that you are pro-Al Qaeda pro-ISIS, why would that strategy only be for foreign policy when it may work just as well domestically? So while the government aims at getting rid of the guns of legal gun owners, to follow the plan, then the government must arm the jihadists. The guns it confiscated, why destroy them, just redistribute them. This was done to arm the terrorists as if we would never wake up to what the Obama/Bush governments were doing.

During WWII, FDR turned down accepting a boat load of Jews seeking asylum. They were shipped back and most died in Nazi extermination camps. Fast-forward to 2015: the US government is not building refugee camps here, so what is the plan, where do these Syrians go? Obviously they will go to the states with most liberal immigration statistics on record. Hello, California. No water to be held by dams you didn't build and while the rainwater is running out to sea, we can take able-bodied Muslim men as have been seen marching into Europe? Where are the women and children? Did you know that jihad attracts Muslim all over the globe to their declared war zones? Consequently many haven't come originally from Syria which is why they aren't coming with their wives and children. But they don't speak Syrian either. If they speak Arabic or Farsi, they may have a language in common. This jihad group comprises Black Muslims from north Africa to Muslims coming from Pakistan and Afghanistan and others. Again, they leave their wives and families at home which explains the "refugees" marching as a non-uniformed army into Europe.

Refugees actually would prefer to live among their own people but since funding comes greatly from Saudi Arabia and Turkey, they don't want them. So the jihad assemblage is passed off as "refugees". If rat poison labeled as "cake mix", would you buy that too? There is no vetting, they have no documents. Brought here by our government, a country too broke to give retired people on S/S a cost of living wage, who will ban oil burning and coal burning furnaces which means people will freeze in cold winters back east. Wonder where the housing is going to come from any longer? While all of us must be vaccinated to prevent epidemics, who is looking at these "immigrants" shot records? Climate change is a tool in the hand of Obama to break the back of our people. Simultaneously, there may be plagues of diseases we are ill-equipped to deal with which is being seen already in Germany. These are judgments which fall quickly or even at the same time as was predicted in the apocalypse of John, the Revelator.

Obama wanted to have a internal army, just as well-funded and armed but could not find any who would take on the task of killing the pesky Jews and Christians. He is playing chess with our lives, he has with the help of the stupid-on-purpose or gullible liberals, just about gotten us in checkmate. Climate change is the means of making Americans freeze to death. It is a major killer of the homeless, without heat, it can be a major killer of those who aren't if in which a polar vortex as we have seen where upper atmosphere heating by HAARP brought in cold we have never seen before. People froze in their cars but they had heat at home. If they shut off those who heat by crude oil and coal in conjunction with that same cold which looks like it was manipulated, you could have death without radiation poisoning the land. By now many of us know that whatever Obama says is a lie and that he is up to no good, that most of what he does is only good for the Muslim Brotherhood and not the population at large. The Muslims don't want to live in tents and will not have to. These two things will work hand in hand.

Do you suppose if a Christian student in Egypt took a "clock" in a suitcase which looks like a suitcase bomb to school, he's be congratulated or that he'd be shown how to sue for $15,000,000? Obama will use anything to embolden Muslims to take a country to enervated with liberalism that we can no longer think rationally. The liberal justice system clearly does not know right from wrong any longer.

If the purpose is to take the government, they won't want the jihad army scattered very far from Washington, D.C. The goal of the Muslims is to destroy this country with our own miserable hands. Wake up and stop playing. Dr. Bill Warren has many excellent videos on YouTube detailing political Islam. Yes, it wears a mask of religion, but it is a constitution and if you think your rights matter, in short order you will not have any. In any war, some give all, and all give some. We owe it to our children to think as you can see when we pay others to think for us so we can "play", only paints a target on our backs when they run out of money and the banks won't fund them. But allowing the Muslims to create a revolution which the administration will not block, we become solvent. All that debt goes away like the banana republics who owe us billions. What becomes of our nuclear arsenal? When the fox has the keys to the hen house, won't the fox, i.e., Obama use them by even "sharing" with unfortunate Muslim countries who can't wait to join in the Middle East jihad. The scenario for the war of Armageddon is now. Wake up.

This has been a long time in coming. By shutting down our economy and keeping it stagnant, Americans are at wits ends to hold on to their poor paying jobs, hours have been cut to allow the employer not to pay for Obamacare. This is not done as a series of accidents by an inept president. He is on the phone daily with Erdogan of Turkey, to guide his stealth jihad. Obama, one who understands dark sentences, that if you turn many away from God and paint the White House in the colors of the rainbow to say how "Gay" our society has become, that you take God's hedge of protection away from us. This "hedge" has saved America before but unless Americans repent, that hedge is in shambles now. We reap the fruits that we many not have planted ourselves but many have led the generation under us, down the primrose path to doom. This is why Darwinism or evolution is a real attack on us, God is our hedge, but only to those who believe. Make the first chapter of the Bible read like "once upon a time", any you have pulled the rug out from under us. This government with three branches of government has depended upon the fourth invisible branch of the press which is in bed with the Liberals, the media has made the coming reign of terror possible. Terror is the means which Muhammad chose. We have not named the "war on terror" it is the defense of the West against Islamic jihad. When you cannot name an enemy but only name a tactic, it blames the spoon for making you fat. This is just stupidity.

I do pray for my country and the first prayer is that we would repent, that God would rebuild our hedge of protection. Now, I see that not as a hedge as a country, but around brave individuals who will tell the truth and preach the Gospel all at the same time. American has turned their back on God but then there are no atheists in the trenches. Then even an atheist will at last be able to hear the voices of the church if within the church are those who have studied history, Islam and the other social experiments which lead to despotism: socialism and communism fueled by Darwinism.

Call out to a God who still hears, Jesus never fails. Invite Him in your heart. Read the Bible. It is to those who believe, a high tower against the enemy. God's promises are not without power to save even today.

Sally Bode

America and Muslims

By Sally Bode

Avi Lipkin, an American born Jew, moved to Israel as a young man and made Israel his home. He married an Egyptian-born Jewish woman named "Rachel" who as an Arabic speaker, has worked for the state of Israel listening to Arabic broadcasts and telling the world what the Arabs tell one another which is quite different from what they tell the West.

Avi Lipkin did not like the Christians of America and told his wife: "The Goyem hate us." "Goyem" is a term Jews use for which we would say "Gentiles". Having been raised in Egypt and seen the Coptic Christians endure similar persecution to the Egyptian Jews, she exclaimed: "You don't know anything! Christians believe in the same God of the Bible unlike those of the Muslim faith, who hate both Jews and Christians and are likewise called "the people of the book". Avi listened but it took, some time to really change his opinion to that of his wife, noting that the true descendants of Abraham are those who love and those whose lives are devoted to hate, are the religion of God's enemy, Avi now spends time speaking to churches so for the purpose of American revival to help Israel's survival. He has great wit and insight living in the Middle East.

It is hard sometimes as I focus on the evil which Islam has done to not hate Muslims. It does help me to remember that the first victims of Islamic hatred begins with their own children who are taught from early on to hate both Jews and Christians. Hating is not healthy, it creates its own brain-chemistry, such that makes it like an "atomic bomb exploding all the time in my mind" as one of my Muslim friends has described his mental health. This robs a person of peace and when you do not have a calm mind, can you make decisions which are sound? When a person's mind is running on pure adrenaline, memories are sketchy at best as in emergency mode, it is like operating in safe mode on a computer. Not even the screen looks normal.

Critical thinking is something we use in the West to determine even if a person is guilty before a jury of his peers. Our Founders endowed the common man with this right, though many of us cannot scarcely afford it in this economy and many employers do not cover wages for their employees who must serve on a jury. In the West, the benefit of what was said by God in the book of Isaiah gave a flavor to the religion of the Jews and later the Christians, that we are supposed to understand. There is nothing wrong with questioning if there are good and consistent answers. This is from Isaiah 1:18 though God invites us into dialogue with Him. "Come let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they will be white as snow; though they are as red as crimson, they will be like wool." Questioning is not a virtue in the Islamic faith. The God of the Bible is not an abrogator, He does not change, nor does Jesus Christ who we know is the same yesterday, today and forever." The Koran is full of abrogation, kind and tolerant verses done away with by later stern and harsh ones. So to understand the Koran by how it works when Muslims find themselves in a position of strength, just look at chapter nine. If you have only time to read one chapter, then this tells you enough and explains the constant wars against Jews and Christians we see today and in the history of Islamic jihad and their holy wars, if we care to look.

Now Avi Lipkin in his study of what Arabs would likely do, made a prediction before we saw it happen. I suppose based on the migration of Muslims to Europe, and the constant wars and displacement of people since the Arab Spring, he predicted that there would be huge numbers of Muslims coming to America as refugees. He said that the Saudis would pay for it and that this would require new housing starts and that these housing starts would be good for the American economy. The part about the Muslims coming to American shores is correct, but I disagree in this point, that it will be beneficial to the American economy based on what is happening in Germany where German citizens are pulled out of their homes to make way for the Muslim immigrants. In Turkey, Muslim refugees were confined to camps and living in tents. Many Syrians have even lived in such camps in Syria. Both Syria and Turkey get really cold in the winter so this is no picnic in the park for sure. But German winters are severe, though they have nothing on cold winters in comparison to what Russian people have lived with. As to what is happening to the displaced Germans, I cannot report on this as I haven't found articles to describe this yet.

So what will happen in America? Based on the revulsion of Muslims on houses built by the Kafir (non-Muslims) in Germany, only if the Muslims build the houses and apartments will they be good enough to keep Muslims happy. So if jobs go to anyone to build houses in America to house these refugee Muslims, it will be the immigrant Muslims, not the American contractors, carpenter, electricians, plumbers, concrete masons, who will benefit though some will at first.

What we have seen and will likely be the case, that the transportation and the food and housing costs are not being on the tab of the Saudis with deep pockets as Avi Lipkin supposed, but to destroy further the economies of the Christian nations whose faith has been undermined by secularism and Darwinism. So for our abandonment of God, God has promised as He did to the Jews that they would suffer wars, be invaded, suffer loss and be uprooted. We should expect that though all of us do not deserve this, that our nation surely had strayed out from under God's protective covering by despising His councils, His laws and the relationship with Him we were called to and our nation was dedicated to.

What the Saudis will fund is the building of mosques and jihad while continuing to send large endowments to universities so that their sons and grandsons now born here will be ready to be those who will govern America in its future. They do not want to see the Christian West propped up even if Muslims within them suffer which they will as this added burden of immigrants to the United States and to Europe, along with fighting home-grown terrorism and that of the newly imported jihadis, will be a disaster on the already depressed economies of these nations. It will help the sale of guns but when Americans must choose between self-defense and paying rent, car payments, food or buying shoes for their children as most already live one pay check to another, unless they can pay over time on credit, they may buy guns but not afford ammunition. As the Saudis will fund jihad and even on American soil, mosques becoming armories as they frequently have been shown to be in the war in Iraq, is to be expected. That the Obama administration has a supply of ammo that has been bought up by Homeland Security, is jaw-dropping. Obama has spoken about an internal army inside America and as he finds not enough fit for this task or virulent enough to kill, kill, kill, he is importing an army of Muslim jihadis to fulfill this promise.

Obama has made mincemeat of our laws and our Congress is weak and divided, they do not understand what Islam will do to the United States nor are they listening to voices from the Middle East to educate them. They have turned off this advise as says Robert Spencer of jihadwatch.com and Brigitte Gabriel, Noni Darwish, Brother Abdullah al Araby, Walid Shoebat, Avi Lipkin and the second generation bloggers who in the wake of 9/11 have educated themselves on Islam. A new voice to pay attention to which offers much insight is Bill Warner in his many videos on YouTube on Political Islam. We must encourage our hearts by standing with those who resist the spread of Islam.

At the same time, we must educate ourselves of why our schools are failing and our culture has become so immoral and pray for revival in America, in Europe and in the rest of the world as well as for the prayers of the persecuted church.

Darwinism has undermined our faith, even those who attend church may not believe the Bible fully. If you can take the story of Creation and turn it into "once upon a time", can you really take any of it as seriously as we should?

As if there isn't enough to learn, but in case you would diversify your ability to stand in these last days, to know that God did indeed create this world as He said. We must stay strong in our faith and as it is weakened, follow the advise of scripture to strengthen ourselves. There are many voices which are reputable and give a good testimony of God's creation and the Biblical flood that can inspire us and help us to witness to Darwinists as well. As many Darwinists are virulent in their hatred second only to that of Muslims, that the two would become allies of one another is certainly what we see. Liberalism in politics is in bed with Islam and we see it in our own government giving many positions of power to those who are Muslim Brotherhood. Until Darwinist also see that this paints as much a target on their back as it does for Christians and Jews, and that their arguments are false, they will continue to say "all religions are equal". Not all religions worship the true God, some like Islam, have mad Satan, who calls himself "Allah", theirs. Allah wants to be worshipped and will not be content with atheism or agnostics either. These are what the Muslims find among us as "useful idiots" and are just as likely to be killed in time as we who are Christians or Jews. Even Muslims do not have respect towards cowards or traitors to their own culture. Until we can also help our neighbors and friends and alright, let's be honest, even our enemies see that it is in everyone's best interest to believe in the God of the Bible, our witness will be incomplete. Of note among Christian apologists for Creation are Dr. Carl Baugh, Dr. Don Patton, Dr. Kent Hovid, Ken Ham. Then there are the scientists who became creationists such as in astro-physics, biology. One needs only to Google or to search on YouTube for excellent lectures on the subject of why Creation is the best description of the fossil record and not evolution.

However the rotten house of Islam though it should collapse under its own weight nor Darwinist will do likewise as despite evidence to the contrary, men and women cling to these things because their deeds are evil and they know not the God who made them, they do not know His love or His grace and we must be ready to give an answer to any for the faith within us. We are told to "study to show ourselves approved" but that does not mean only the scriptures but to be wise and find those arguments raised against us by Darwinism and by Islam to do as the men of old of faith like Daniel who shut the mouths of lions.

It is like if one were to wash their windshield, washing just one part is insufficient. So also are we like guns without bullets if we do not know arguments we will need in the future to help us win souls or to strengthen the resolve of others to do what we cannot do ourselves.

It seems like a daunting task. But we must recall as St. Paul stated "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Paris under siege: More than 150 dead in terror attacks

Terrorists killed at least 153 people and wounded scores of other innocents in coordinated shooting and suicide-bomb attacks in Paris late Friday that included a mass execution at a rock concert, authorities said.

The carnage began at about 10 p.m. Paris time, with one group of jihadis targeting venues packed with people in a night-life district and another attacking near a soccer stadium where President Francois Hollande was watching a match with Germany, French police said.

Read more

Nigeria military says closing in on Boko Haram militants

Lagos (AFP) – The Nigerian army said Sunday it was closing in on Islamist Boko Haram militants and warned them of serious consequences should they fail to “surrender”.

“They should follow their colleagues who have so far surrendered. Failure to surrender will result in serious consequences as our troops are fast closing up on them,” army spokesman Colonel Sani Usman said in a statement.

“We wish to inform them that we are aware of all their hideouts, camps and enclaves,” said the statement sent to AFP.

The military has claimed that more than 200 members of the militant group surrendered September 25 when troops regained control of the northeastern town of Banki, a launching point for attacks into Cameroon.

There was no independent verification of the military's statement.

Boko Haram has denied its members surrendered and that 241 women and children were rescued when troops cleared what the military said were "terrorist camps" near Banki.

The statement on Sunday appealed to all Nigerians to persuade them to desist and renounce their membership of the group.

Nigerian President Muhammadu Buhari has set his military commanders a three-month deadline to early November to end Boko Haram violence, which has left at least 17,000 dead since 2009, mostly in the three affected states in the northeast: Borno, Adamawa and Yob.

The military has claimed a series of successes against Boko Haram recently, including the rescue of the 241 women and children.

But the group struck again this weekend, with 41 people killed on Saturday and 48 were wounded in triple explosions in a Chadian city on the shores of Lake Chad, blamed on Boko Haram, the government in N'Djamena said Sunday.

Lake Chad is bordered by Nigeria, Niger, Cameroon and Chad. Boko Haram has continued to attack in these neighbouring countries.

In another statement, the military said that security agencies were working to secure the release of school girls kidnapped in Chibok on April 14 last year and other citizens held hostage by the Islamists.

"The search for abducted Chibok school girls and the rescue of other Nigerians in hostage has never relapsed...," military spokesman Colonel Rabe Abubakar said in the statement.

“The military has and will continue to sustain the operation until the entire northeast is cleared of all terrorists and miscreants,” it added.

The abduction of more than 200 school girls from their dormitory triggered international uproar and condemnation.

<http://news.yahoo.com/nigeria-military-says-closing-boko-haram-militants-183642644.html>

IS SHARIA ISLAMIC LAW COMPATIBLE WITH THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION?

By Abdullah Al Araby

Republican presidential candidate Ben Carson courageously stated that he could not support the election of a practicing Muslim to the presidency of the United States. The reason was that he doesn't think Islam is consistent with the American Constitution. Is Mr. Carson justified in his statement? Let's examine the facts.

Islam is more than a religion; it is an all-encompassing way of life with regulations for every facet of life. The life governing rules are embodied in what is known as Sharia Law. These laws are based upon the Quran, the Hadith (Mohammed's sayings,) and the Sira (Mohammed's biography). How does Sharia Law compare to the American Constitution that outlines the values and institutions that we hold dear?

First: Liberty

The United States was built on the Bill of Rights, established by the founding fathers that came here to escape religious oppression. The Constitution gives citizens the right to express themselves as they please. We are free to criticize any governing elected official or policy; and are free to worship any way that we choose and to speak our minds about our own religion or that of others. Americans can act anyway that they deem appropriate as long as we don't violate the rights of others.

What would happen to this freedom in an Islamic state? Would the citizens be granted the right to choose the religion they want, or would they be forced to accept Islam according to the Quranic verse: "If any one desires a religion other than Islam, never will it be accepted of him, and in the hereafter he will be in the ranks of those who have lost." (Qur'an 3:85). How about the right of a Muslim to change to another religion? Is that a non-controversial matter as it is in our Bill of Rights? Or, would it mean that whoever changed from Islam would be charged with apostasy which is punishable by death? Mohammad said "Whoever changes his religion, kill him." Hadith Al Bukhari Vol. 9:57.

Second: Democracy

The USA's system of government gives citizens the right of self-rule through duly elected officials of their choice. These representatives write the laws that best concur with the wishes of the people to maintain their way of life. We are to even have a say in what amount of taxes we are to pay and how the funds are to be spent.

One important principle in this great system is the separation of church and state. Islam, however, is actually a political-religious system. It's built on an opposing concept, for “Islam is a religion and a state.” According to Islam, Sharia law is the principal sources of legislation: “We have sent down to thee the book in truth, that you might judge men as guided by God.” (Qur’an 4:105). If Sharia is the basis for law, what are some of the rules and regulations that might be eventually imposed under a Muslim president? Here are just a few examples:

- Stealing: punished by hand amputation (Qur’an 5:38)
- Adultery: punished by public flogging (Qur’an 24:2)
- Drinking: punished by 40 or 80 lashes (Al Bukhari 8:770)
- Resisting Islam: punished by death, crucifixion or the cutting off of the hands and feet (Qur’an 5:33)

- Blasphemy against Allah punishable by death (Qur’an 5:33-34)
- Blasphemy against the Prophet Mohammad: Death – even if the accuser repents (Qur’an 33:57)
- “Sodomy (homosexuality): Death for the person committing the act, as well as for the one receiving it. (Qur’an 4:15-16 and Sunan Abu Dawood 38:4447)

Third: Equality

Under our system in the United States, there is not to be any discrimination among citizens based on gender, race, color, or religion. Would Islam treat men and women equally?

- It teaches that men are superior to women (Qur’an 2:228)
- It gives male heirs double portions of inheritance as that given female heirs. (Qur’an” 4:11)
- When testifying in court a man’s witness has the twice the value of a woman’s. (Qur’an 2:282)

Would Islam treat non-Muslims fairly?

- The Quran warns Muslims not to befriend Jews or Christians? (Qur’an 9:30)
- The Quran imposes “Jizya” (tribute tax) on Christians and Jews. They pay the extra Jizya tax just for the right of existence in Islamic culture (Qur'an 9:29)

- Muhammad says that a Muslim cannot be legally executed for killing a non-Muslim. " Al Bukhari Vol. 9:50

My fellow Americans

The threat of Islam is real. Muslims are taught from youth to give first allegiance to the religion of Islam above any non-Muslim nation. In essence, for most any fundamentalist Muslim, citizenship in the USA is apt to be merely a stepping stone to see Sharia Law established as the law of the land. To elect a Muslim President of the USA, carries great risks.

Get this message around. Keep America free, for all to enjoy.

Muslim Guilt Trip Trojan Horse

By Jim Croft

Marty Skinner asks: Syria has had a civil war for almost 5 YEARS. Why all the "refugees "NOW and why so all of a SUDDEN and why in such VAST NUMBERS?

With an Honors degree in History and a lifelong student of the subject, I smell a rat. This is a highly organized, well oiled, mobilized invasion of Muslims and Jihadists into the Western World. It's been in their plan for a long time. Momar Gadhafi predicted and explicitly stated that Muslim domination of Europe would happen without a conventional war and he said it 30 years ago. 95% of these economic "refugees" many who have cellphones are men between the fighting ages of 20 and 40. Very few women and children from everything I've seen.

Odd that the 5 wealthiest Arab States including Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Bahrain and Kuwait are taking "no refugees" thanks and feel quite self righteous about it. No guilt what so ever? They are even laughing at us for doing so.

Ask yourself, why would Germany Belgium, Holland, France, Sweden and others want to destroy their own cultures from within? It doesn't make any sense? If this keeps up Europe will be burning daily within a very short few years if not months. Civil war in the streets between civilizations. Muslims vs Kefirs, that is to say, everyone who is not a Muslim.

Unfortunately, the reality is that Muslims are just not like any other immigrants. They don't want to assimilate, they want to set up separate enclaves and implement Sharia Law. Another problem is that while the civilized West rightly abhors violence, conversely Muslims daily display their love of violence. They live it and embrace it. In many Muslim countries public beheadings and stoning to death for adultery for example. It's a part of their culture precisely because Islam is, dare I say it, a death cult.

Islam is a supremacist, totalitarian, bigoted, fascist political ideology masquerading as a religion. It literally means "submission". The Quran MANDATES death for blasphemy, for adultery, for apostasy, for family honor, for being gay, Jewish or a Kafer as well as ten other "crimes" many not even considered to be so in the West. Death for drinking alcohol or taking illegal drugs for example. Why let in vast numbers of these brainwashed people especially men of that age when past experience has already demonstrated the tragedy, not to mention the financial, social, and political costs of rampant multiculturalism in Europe. Ordinary citizens are against this immigration but strangely, their governments are not?

Someone or some organization is pulling some strings here is what I see. Is this invasion part of the New World Order's plan to depopulate the planet? Maybe there's not even any such an organization but it's all over U-tube and other social media. The major media are implicit in selling gullible citizens of the West the righteousness of the "refugees" cause and openly siding against Western culture.

One drowned child's picture in the right places sparks outrage and sympathy world wide for the movement and resettlement of vast numbers of Muslims. However the implementation of Sharia Law, No Go Zone ghettos in most countries in Europe and Muslim rape gangs go unreported. In radical Islamist countries honor killings, beheadings, stoning's, cutting off limbs, whipping and torture, pedophilia, child bride marriages, rape and misogyny go unreported DAILY and are dismissed as culturally ingrained.

Where is the indignity and the outrage over people doing this every day to their own populations? Yet a staged picture a drowned baby on a beach sparks a world outcry? Muslim birthrates are 8 children per family while Europeans average 1.4. When these current millions bring in their multiple wives, children and extended families 85% of whom live on state benefits (England's experience) you can multiply their number by at least 10x, maybe 20x or even more.

By 2050 Europe will be Muslim dominated just by demographics alone. When their numbers are sufficient they will legally vote in their own kind and then Sharia Law. Europe as we know it will be lost forever. Two thousand years of civilization will be destroyed by the same fanatical bearded, bigoted, brutal, boneheaded, belligerent bastards who are now slaughtering their own kind and blowing up ancient and irreplaceable world heritage buildings, monuments, books, manuscripts and other historically significant art treasures in Iraq, Syria and other conquered territories.

Canada (America) should not get sucked into this quagmire of political correctness just to show how polite, civilized, politically correct and Canadian we are. We should learn a lesson from our Australian counterparts.

Ben Carson: Muslim Unfit to Be President Because Islam Is Inconsistent With Constitution

Republican presidential candidate Ben Carson says he would not support a Muslim to become president of the United States. In fact, he believes a Muslim would not be fit to be president, because he doesn't think Islam is consistent with the country's Constitution. "I would not advocate that we put a Muslim in charge of this nation. I absolutely would not agree with that," Carson said on NBC's Meet the Press.

Read more here.

To Kill an American

Peter Ferrara

Associate Professor of Law George Mason University School of Law.

You probably missed it in the rush of news recently, but there was a report that a Pakistani newspaper had published someone's offer of a reward to anyone who killed an American, any American.

So I just thought I would write to let them know what an American is, so they will know when they find one.

An American is English...or French, or Italian, Irish, German, Spanish, Polish, Russian or Greek. An American may also be African, Indian, Chinese, Japanese, Australian, Iranian, Asian, or Arab, or Pakistani, or Afghan.

An American is Christian, or Jewish, or Buddhist, or Muslim. In fact, there are more Muslims in America than in Afghanistan. The only difference is that in America they are free to worship as they choose.

An American is also free to believe in no religion. For that he will answer only to God, not to the government, or to armed thugs claiming to speak for God or the government.

An American is from the most prosperous land in the history of the world. The root of that prosperity can be found in the Declaration of Independence, which recognizes the God-given right of each man and woman to the pursuit of happiness.

An American is generous. Americans have helped friend and foe in their time of need. When Afghanistan was overrun by the Soviet army 20 years ago, Americans came with arms and supplies to enable the people to win back their country. As of the morning of September 11, Americans were giving more than any other nation to the poor in Afghanistan.

An American does not have to obey the mad ravings of ignorant, ungodly, cruel, old men. American men will not be fooled into giving their lives to kill innocent people, so that foolish old men may stay in power. American women are free to show their beautiful faces to the world or not, as they choose.

An American is free to criticize his government's officials when they are wrong. Then he is free to replace them, by majority vote.

Americans welcome people from all lands, all cultures, all religions, because they are not afraid. They are not afraid that their history, their religion, their beliefs, will be overrun, or forgotten. That is because they know that in this country they will always be free to embrace their religion, their beliefs, their history, as they choose.

And just as Americans welcome all, they enjoy the best that everyone has to bring from all over the world. The best science, the best technology, the best products, the best books, the best music, the best food, the best athletes.

Americans welcome the best, but they also welcome the least. The national symbol of America welcomes your tired and your poor, the wretched refuse of your teeming shores, the homeless, the tempest tossed.

These in fact are the people who built America. Many of them were working in the twin towers in New York on the morning of September 11, trying to provide a better life for their families.

So you can try to kill an American if you must. Hitler did. So did General Tojo and Stalin and Mao Tse-Tung.

But in doing so you will just be killing yourself. Because Americans are not a particular people from a particular place. They are the embodiment of the human spirit of freedom. Everyone who holds to that spirit, everywhere, is an American.

So look around you. You will find more Americans in your land than you thought were there. And you can expect that one day they will rise up and overthrow the old, ignorant, tired tyrants that have troubled too many lands. Then those lands too will join the community of free and prosperous nations.

And America will welcome them.

#####

(Peter Ferrara is an associate professor of law at the George Mason University School of Law, and a member of the Board of Scholars of the Virginia Institute for Public Policy, an education and research organization headquartered in Potomac Falls, Virginia. Permission to reprint in whole or in part is hereby granted, provided the author and his affiliations are cited.)

Islam is a religion of WHAT?

By Jackie Mason & Raoul Felder

Standing on Atlantic Avenue in Brooklyn, on the afternoon of September 11, 2001, looking west to Manhattan, the fires had turned the horizon a bright orange that rose to great heights painted against a perfect pitiless blue sky.

Observing this terrible beauty, the residents of the neighborhood danced in the streets, laughing, shouting to each other, shaking hands. These people were not what one would suppose to be fanatical or militant Muslims. They were people who had come to these shores from the Middle East, mostly shop keepers, bakers, purveyors of eastern spices, tradesmen, cab drivers and the usual diversity of people found in a New York ethnic neighborhood on a warm fall weekday. They were American citizens however, who were expressing their judgment – joy at the events of that horrible day that forever changed our world and America's place in that world. They were also the followers of Islam: religion of oppression, discrimination, violence, terror, war, superstition, intolerance and prejudice. They were the followers of a religion of hate who, at the very least, if not active participants in the events of that world-changing day, took unashamed pleasure in the violence visited upon those – including their fellow citizens and neighbors – who did not share their beliefs.

The President has said about Islam: ...Islam inspires countless individuals to lead lives of honesty, integrity and morality (12/5/02). A...It's [Islam] a faith based on love, not hate. (9/10/02) "The Islam that we know...teaches the value and the importance of charity, mercy and peace. (11/15/01).

Well, he is the President, and like Tony Blair, probably has to say these sorts of politically-correct things in the belief that they are necessary to be said, because to declare the truth would create a threat to the maintenance of order or, it might provoke an outraged citizenry to retaliate in a vengeful and illegal way, jeopardizing domestic tranquility. We have no such impediment and trust that the truth can only serve to enlighten and not to incite.

Islam exists as it is taught in the Koran and lived by Muhammad. Muhammad, by the way, was hardly an example that one would wish to emulate. He had affairs with maids and slave girls and was also a pedophile (and before we get outraged e-mails on the latter point, here is chapter and verse: the girl's name was Aisha, she was 9 he was 53. He was also involved in the slave trade, assassinations and genocide. But, what the heck, nobody is perfect.)

Let's, as the sportscasters say, go to the record, which, in this case is the Koran.

- Kill the disbelievers wherever we find them. (2:191)
- Fight and slay the pagans (translation: that's us) seize them, beleaguer them, and lie in wait for them in every stratagem. (9:5)
- Slay or crucify or cut the hands and feet of the unbelievers...(5:34)
- ...strike off the heads of the disbelievers...[make a] wide slaughter among them, carefully tie up the remaining captives [for ransom] (947:4)
- [treatment of disbelievers]...garments of fire shall be cut and there shall be poured over their heads boiling water whereby whatever is in their bowels and skin shall be dissolved and they will be punished with hooked iron rods (22:19).
- The Koran also instructs Muslims to slay or crucify or cut the hands and the feet of the unbelievers (5:34), fight unbelievers until no other religion except Islam remains. (3:85)

Given these basic teachings of Islam there is little reason to be surprised at the beheading of Americans Nick Berg and Paul Johnson .

Of course, not all Muslims participate in violence or even express joy at the perpetration of violence against the West in general, or Americans in particular, just as all Germans in the forties did not believe when they heard their anthem, Deutschland uber alles, that it meant literally that Germany must conquer all other nations. Some Germans embraced a passive longing for Germany to be victorious; some few actually despised fascism, and some, an almost non-existent few acted against it. So it is with Islam and the Muslims. About the best the civilized world can expect is a joyous but passive reaction to the mindless violence.

Empires have come and gone. Rome, Portugal, France, Holland, Germany and even in our time, Great Britain, have seen their moment of world dominance – have seen it flicker, and then, extinguish. And yet, they accepted it as part of the panorama of history, and have moved on. Not so with Islam.

It is not by accident that our enemies call the coalition forces in Iraq the Crusaders. To Islam the war, which they lost centuries ago, continues.

[It is of interest to note that the United States went to war with Muslim powers in 1801. Barbary pirates kidnapped and made slaves of our citizens, demanding tribute for their release. John Adams and Thomas Jefferson asked of the envoy of Tripoli by what right did he make his claim for payment. As reported to Congress by Jefferson, "The Ambassador answered us that it was founded on the Laws of their Prophet, that it was written in their Koran, that all nations who should not have acknowledged their authority were sinners, that it was their right and duty to make war upon them wherever they could be found and to make slaves of all they could take as Prisoners."
]

The enemy is not really the United States, nor even Israel. The enemy is modernity itself and the forces of change that have made them irrelevant. The West has persevered and they have lost. They are the have-nots, and to the degree that they have the economic power of oil, even this has been denied to them as a society by the corruption of their own despotic rulers. They are the past in a present and future that belongs to the West. There is a chord that joins them with other losers like Lee Harvey Oswald and Lee Boyd Malvo, devoid of any distinction or ability to even control their own lives, who strike out in spasms of hate-filled rage.

Muslims, married to a failed past, offer little hope for integration into modern society. Israel giving them land to which they are not entitled, or the United States not punishing them for criminal acts will not assuage their rage. America must learn it cannot negotiate or reason with people who consider us infidels. It must recognize that the enemy is often among us and all the exposure available to them in Western civilization with its tolerances and respect for individual rights will not affect their seething anger at imagined wrongs, injustices, and illogical sense of entitlement.

Historically, use of strength, swift and certain punishment, and resolve of purpose are all that is left us to effectively deal with their primitive madness. And until we recognize this, there will be many more beheadings and September elevenths.

CULTURE OF HATE

By AMIR TAHERI

June 22, 2004 – HOURS after Paul Johnson's decapitated body was shown Friday in Riyadh, Saudi Interior Minister Prince Nayef bin Abdul-Aziz announced that government forces had killed the man responsible for the murder, Abdul-Aziz al-Mouqrin, and two of his accomplices.

"This crime was committed by a handful of deviants," the prince said. A few deviants? Hardly.

The tragedy that struck Johnson is the product of a culture of hatred, arrogance and cruelty built over decades by the Saudi society.

To be sure, this does not mean that all Saudis think or would, if given the opportunity, behave as the killers did. But there is no escaping the fact that they do bear part of the responsibility, if only by providing the socio-cultural topoi in which terrorism thrives.

Until recently, Saudi textbooks taught schoolchildren to regard non-Muslims as sub-humans who did not deserve the same respect due to "true believers," that is to say the followers of the officially approved Hanbali brand of Islam.

For decades, Saudi society has been obsessed with what could only be described as religious exhibitionism.

The nouveaux riches have tried to secure a place in the next world by building mosques, some 4,000 in Riyadh alone, and by contributing to so-called "Islamic causes."

What can only be described as a "religion industry" employs more muftis, preachers, teachers, enforcers, muezzins and theologians than the oil industry that produces 80 percent of the nation's income. Saudi universities churn out more "religious scholars" each year than doctors and engineers.

The state has spent an estimated $100 billion on "Islamic" causes since the mid '70s. No doubt part of the money went to humanitarian causes and the financing of development projects in the poorer Muslim countries. But there is also no doubt that vast sums of money were funneled to radical organizations that believe they have a mission to conquer the world for Islam through terrorism and war.

Today, the Saudi authorities insist that no more government money is going to terrorist groups. This may be true. After all, the Saudi rulers now realize that the ultimate aim of the monster they helped create is to devour them. But what about wealthy Saudi individuals who, either to buy personal protection or because they wish the ruling family to be overthrown, continue to fund the terrorists?

The problem goes beyond textbooks and ready money for terror. The average Saudi citizen is subjected to systematic Islamist brainwashing.

Let us just cite one example, immediately relevant to Johnson's murder.

The group that beheaded Johnson calls itself "The Fallujah Brigade," named after the Iraqi city which was the scene of a brief insurgency a few weeks ago.

The Arab media, especially the satellite TV channels, presented the Fallujah insurgency as "one of the greatest battles the Arabs have ever waged against the Crusaders," as an editorial in the daily Al-Arab claimed.

The fact that the Arabs had hardly played a role in the historic Crusades (which were largely fought by Turks, Kurds and the Mamelukes) did not prevent the propagandists from exaggerating the "Epic of Fallujah" far beyond an understandable degree of hype.

Dominated by pan-Arabists and Islamists, the Arab media claimed that the United States had deployed "all its military might" to conquer Fallujah and had failed. The "heroes of Fallujah" fought like lions and, supported by non-combatants, including women and children (who died in thousands), succeeded in winning "a spectacular victory," thus "saving Arab honor."

More than a dozen Arab poets have already committed odes and sonnets to commemorate Fallujah as "the Arab Stalingrad." One Syrian composer is working on an opera about "the heroes of Fallujah," while a couple of Egyptian hacks are breaking their typewriters to produce scripts for a film and a TV series on this latest of imaginary Arab victories.

The phrase "the Fallujah butchery" has been hammered into the Arab consciousness to justify an almost pathological hatred of the United States as a power responsible for “many thousands of civilian deaths.”

The beheading of Paul Johnson, therefore, is presented as an act of revenge for deaths that, in fact, never happened.

What is interesting is that the satellite channels that peddled those lies are all owned by Arab governments (including the Saudi one) or individuals related to the ruling families.

The average Arab, including the average Saudi, was never allowed to know what actually happened in Fallujah. The few who tried to offer an accurate account were relieved of their positions or denied a chance to offer their take.

One account that never found an echo in the Arab satellite TV was provided by the Red Crescent (the equivalent of the Red Cross) of the United Arab Emirates whose representatives were present in Fallujah (where the group has a hospital) throughout the insurgency.

Here is part of the UAE Red Crescent’s version as related by Muhammad Salim al-Harhi from Abu Dhabi:

“The Arab media have wildly exaggerated what happened at Fallujah. The fighting concerned only a few districts [of the town]. There never was any fighting on a big scale. There certainly was no clash involving thousands of the town’s inhabitants. The number of those who died did not exceed 270, almost all fighters, not civilians. The resistance (i.e. the insurgency) was made up of former [Iraqi army] officers with a small number of [non-Iraq] Arabs representing Salafist [i.e. radical Islamist] groups.”

Why would the Arab states allow their media to build a deadly myth to foment hatred and incite violence? They hope that by diverting hatred from themselves to the United States, they might escape being targeted by the terrorists.

That, of course, is a forlorn hope. Those who beheaded Johnson would, when the time comes, also behead the Arab ruling elites, including those who've turned the Arab media into a myth-making machine.

Paul Johnson was killed by lies spread by Arab elites. He was killed by those who wrote those textbooks and those who taught them for decades.

He was killed by the sheiks who finance Arab television, and by the anchormen and women who, with tones of false emotion in their voices, told all those lies about Fallujah – just as they have been telling lies about other conflicts involving the Arabs for decades.

He was killed by the over 1,500 Arab lawyers who have volunteered to defend Saddam Hussein but were nowhere to be seen when he was engaged in genocide against the Iraqi people.

Johnson was killed by the wealthy Arabs who continue to finance the terror organizations.

To say that killing Johnson was wrong would mean accepting that he, though not a Muslim, was a full human being with an equal right to live. And that is the huge historic, indeed doctrinal, leap that Islam must take before it can contain and defeat the terrorists who are trying to change it beyond recognition.

The U.S. ambassador in Riyadh, James Oberwetter, has called on the Saudi government to “bring Paul Johnson’s murderers to account.” The ambassador may not know it, but his demand involves a whole culture and millions of its human products, who must be brought to account if they are to be ultimately rescued from the inferno of lies, hatred and terror that is wrecking their lives as well.